

The mission of the University of North Carolina:

“The University of North Carolina is a public, multi-campus university dedicated to the service of North Carolina and its people . . . [Its] mission is to discover, create, transmit, and apply knowledge to address the needs of individuals and society. This mission is accomplished through instruction, which communicates the knowledge and values and imparts the skills necessary for individuals to lead responsible, productive, and personally satisfying lives; through research, scholarship, and creative activities, which advance knowledge and enhance the educational process; and through public service, which contributes to the solution of societal problems and enriches the quality of life in the State. . . Teaching and learning constitute the primary service that the university renders to society.”<sup>1</sup>
