Welcome

The Office of Disability Support Services provides support for students with documented medical conditions and disabilities and/or accommodations to participate in the academic and social life of North Carolina A&T State University. If you need assistance contact us. We encourage you to contact the office early in the beginning of your college career.

Mission Statement:

The mission statement of Disability Support Services is broken down into several components:

- To assist the student with a disability adjustment to University life.
- To provide and promote the use of support services to address specific needs of the student.
- To advocate for and educate others regarding the rights and concerns of the students with disabilities.
- To monitor the University's compliance with the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act, 1990.

Take a few minutes to browse through our site to learn more about eligibility requirements, and obtain information that may be useful. Should you have any concerns or questions you are looking for, just contact us. We are here to help.
