Policy on Disruptive Students in the Classroom

During instances when students exhibit disruptive behavior in the classroom, a faculty member should attempt to defuse the student (s)'s anger and/or resolve the problem while maintaining a tone of calmness and professional objectivity. If the situation appears to be escalating out of control, the faculty member should go to, or request that another student in the class go to, the nearest administrative office to contact campus security for assistance in bringing the matter under control. If a student (s)'s behavior in the classroom has been unreasonable or inappropriate, e.g., student used profanity, student threatened the faculty member or another student in the class, etc., then the faculty member may request that the student be administratively withdrawn from the course. This action is consistent with the attached policy of the University of North Carolina – UNC-GA Policy on Disruptive Behavior in the Classroom.

(See Appendix D)

Any student who is involved in classroom disruption is subject to receive penalties resulting from the Policy on Disruptive Students in the Classroom and also to be charged with disciplinary violation of Misconduct Prohibited by the University.
