Dr. Wheelan:

Your September 18, 2008 response to our submission of information on online degree programs requested that we: (1) provide additional details (the implementation dates) on these programs and (2) submit a Joint Curricular Ventures report for the online PhD in Technology Management. We have completed the first part of the request. However, the joint ventures report will require additional documentation. Would you extend the submission date for the joint ventures report through November 14, 2008 to allow us to gather further documentation? Thank you for considering our request for an extension.
