Course Description

Student Learning Objectives/Outcomes (Undergraduate)

If both undergraduate (UG) and graduate (G) students are enrolled in the course (e.g., 600-level courses), please specify the learning outcomes for UG and G. Learning outcomes should be specific, measurable, and focus on the content knowledge the students are expected to master and not what the faculty will teach.

University General Education (UNST) objectives addressed by the course:

Student Learning Objectives/Outcomes (Graduate)

The graduate learning outcomes should be "progressively more advanced in academic content than undergraduate programs" (SACS CR 3.6.1). In addition, the instruction and resources for graduate students should “foster independent learning, enabling the graduate to contribute to a profession or field of study” (SACS CR 3.6.2)

Field Trip Policies / Off-Campus Instruction and Course Activities [Denise: Is there a website or student handbook we can reference?]

Off-campus, out-of-state, and foreign instruction and activities are subject to state law and University policies and procedures regarding travel and risk-related activities. Information regarding these rules and regulations may be found at the website address www. Additional information is available from the office of Student Affairs [Denise: Is this correct?]. Below is a description of any travel and/or risk-related activity associated with this course.

Other Policies (e.g., copyright guidelines, confidentiality, etc.)

Student Conduct & Discipline

North Carolina A&T State University has rules and regulations that govern student conduct and discipline meant to ensure the orderly and efficient conduct of the educational enterprise. It is the responsibility of each student to be knowledgeable about these rules and regulations. Please consult the undergraduate and graduate bulletins and student handbook for detailed information about specific policies such as academic dishonesty, cell phones, change of grade, disability services, disruptive behavior, general class attendance, grade appeal, incomplete grades, make up work, student grievance procedures, withdrawal, etc.

These descriptions and timelines are subject to change at the discretion of the Professor.
