

EDUCATION AND TRAINING COMMITTEE

CRIMINAL JUSTICE EDUCATION AND TRAINING STANDARDS COMMISSION

CHIEF TOM MOSS , COMMITTEE CHAIR

We are glad you have chosen to follow and read the minutes of the Education and Training Committee meetings. Our committee has an important role within the structure of the Commission. As stated in the Commission by-laws, the purpose of the committee is to "be responsible for the establishment of entry level and specialized training programs for the improvement of criminal justice personnel which result in the establishment of new and revised standards."

The by-laws further define the duties of the Education and Training Committee:

- (a) to promote the development, delivery, and revision of basic training programs, instructor training programs and other training programs deemed necessary and appropriate by the Commission;
- (b) to develop and maintain an effective working relationship with the Department of Justice in the provision of staff and other services to the Commission;
- (c) to research and evaluate curriculum and delivery methods in the field of criminal justice education and training;
- (d) to conduct research into the provisions for affiliation with the criminal justice education and training system as outlined by NCGS 17C-8; and
- (e) to participate in the system planning process.

North Carolina Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards Commission

Plan of Organization and By-laws, revised November 15, 1985

The Committee utilizes several integral policies to guide its' work: a Curriculum Development policy, a Policy on Addition/Deletion of Speed Measuring Instruments to the North Carolina Approved Speed Measuring Instrument List, a Curriculum Revision Policy and an Accreditation Policy. These policies ensure that Commission-mandated training will be revised and kept up-to-date after its' initial development.

Our committee is composed of many hardworking, dedicated members who take seriously the importance of developing job-appropriate skills for criminal justice professionals in our State. It is my pleasure to chair this committee. I am the Police Chief of Garner Police Department and am one of the representatives from the North Carolina Association of Chiefs of Police. Our current members include;

Chief Tom Moss, Chairman Representing the North Carolina Association of Chiefs of Police	Chief Wrenn Johnson Representing the NC Police Executives Association
Secretary George Sweat Representing Department of Juvenile Justice & Delinquency Prevention	Ms. Robin Pendergraft Representing the Attorney General of the State of North Carolina - Ex Officio Member
Dr. Robert Ruth Representing the N.C. Criminal Justice Association	Captain Terry Jones Representing the North State Law Enforcement Officers Association
Ms. Tracy McPherson, Representing the President of the North Carolina Community College System	Mr. Vernon Bryant Appointment by the General Assembly
Mr. Wade Anders Appointment by the General Assembly

We are assisted by the staff from the North Carolina Justice Academy to include Peggy Schaefer, Chet Jernigan, and Malia Hollingsworth. Many Academy instructors in specific skill areas also assist us with development and delivery of Commission courses.

Please feel free to contact me, other Committee members or Justice Academy staff with your questions and input.
