

Examples of Conferences/Special Programs sponsored by OCSPD [4]

The 3rd National Conference on Environmental Science and Technology

As with all OCSPD programming, this office provided on-line registration and coordinated the on-site registration, hotel contracts, and meals for participants from USDOE, USEPA, NOAA, NSF, other Federal Agencies, university faculty, staff, and students. The conference was sponsored by the Waste Management Institute of NC A&T.

North Carolina Alliance to Create Opportunity Through Education (Opt-Ed Alliance Day with the NC Opt Ed Program, located at UNC-Chapel Hill, NC A&T hosts, annually, the Opt-Ed Alliance Day in Greensboro. OCSPD coordinates the coliseum contract process and assists with on-line registration for college recruiters and with on-site registration. Twenty four college recruiter registrants/500 attendees.

Ronald McNair Celebration & Symposium with the McNair Program and the Division of Student Affairs.

HBCU Think Tank with the Student Government Association, the College of Arts & Sciences, and the Student Affairs Division.

Bridges to Engineering Research 2020 Conference with the College of Engineering, the Division of Research, and the National Science Foundation.

2008 Carolinas Conference with the student chapter of the American Society of Civil Engineers.

LIKES Workshop, with the Computer Science Department and funded by the National Science Foundation.