Office of the Dean of Students

University Judicial Procedures | Code of Conduct | Our Policies

The Office of the Dean of Students seeks to promote ethical conduct and responsible student behavior by educating the student on expected standards of behavior. This office further assists the student to consider in advance the consequences of behavioral infractions and maturely accepting accountability for his/her behavior. Student training in conflict management and other life skills is offered to the Student Government Association including the Student Judiciary Council and Student Senate, the Dean of Students Advisory Council, and to other students and student groups. Training modules include conflict management and resolution, governance, student conduct regulations (see Student Handbook), and the history of North Carolina A&T. Through these concerted efforts, the goal is for students to become campus stewards and global citizens.

The Dean of Students assists the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs in the overall administration of the Student Affairs Division which includes student services, student life, and student development for undergraduate and graduate students. The office strives to promote campus safety and harmony by maintaining an environment consistent with the educational purposes and operations of the University.

The Dean of Students serves in an advocacy role to improve student life through cooperation and collaboration with students, faculty, administration, and staff. The Dean of Students is responsible for the day-to-day administration of Student Judicial Affairs, serves as the primary advisor to the Student Government Association, and supervises and supports the activities of the following administrative units:

- International Students and Scholars
- Veterans and Disability Support Services
- Multicultural Student Center
