Performance Review of Tenured Faculty

[At its meeting on May 16, 1997, the Board of Governors adopted the recommendations in the report of the University of North Carolina Committee to Study Post-Tenure Review entitled, "Post-Tenure Review in The University of North Carolina." These recommendations are contained herein. The full text of the report is available at UNC General Administration.]

Recommendations

- 1. That the system of post-tenure review in the University of North Carolina shall incorporate the following principles:
 - a. The purpose of the review shall be to support and encourage excellence among tenured faculty by:
 - (1) recognizing and rewarding exemplary faculty performance;
 - (2) providing for a clear plan and timetable for improvement of performance of faculty found deficient, and
 - (3) for those whose performance remains deficient, providing for the imposition of appropriate sanctions which may, in the most serious cases, include a recommendation for discharge.
 - b. The system of review will encompass and acknowledge the importance and significance of annual performance reviews while providing for comprehensive, periodic, cumulative review of the performance of all faculty whose primary professional responsibilities are teaching, research, and/or service.
 - c. The review procedure must provide for the evaluation over an appropriate period of time of all aspects of professional performance of faculty relative to the mission of the institution, college, and program. For each tenured faculty member, a cumulative review shall take place no less frequently than every five years. A review undertaken to grant tenure or to decide on promotion qualifies as such a cumulative review.
 - d. There must be peer involvement in the review.
 - e. The review process must include written feedback to the faculty member being reviewed as well as a mechanism for faculty response to the evaluation.
 - f. Institutional policies for post-tenure review must not abrogate, in any way, the criteria and procedures for due process and for discharge or other disciplinary action established in Chapter VI of The Code of the University.
 - g. While constituent institutions may wish to consider individual development or career plans for all faculty as a part of the review system, each performance review system must require such a plan for each faculty member receiving less than satisfactory ratings in the cumulative review. These individual development or career plans must include specific steps designed to lead to improvement, a specified time line in which improvement is expected to occur, and a clear statement of consequences should improvement not occur within the designated time line.
 - h. In proposing its policies, each constituent institution must consider the resources necessary to support and facilitate a meaningful review system and its outcomes.

The UNC Policy Manual 400.3.3 Adopted 05/16/97 Amended 10/17/08

- 2. That within the broad principles approved in 1. above, each constituent institution will develop policies and procedures for review that will reflect the mission of the institution. Development a system of post-tenure review will require re-examination of the effectiveness of current faculty personnel policies as well as planning and program review policies.
- 3. That institutions will have one year following the release of guidelines by General Administration to develop their policies and procedures.
- 4. That the policies and procedures developed by each constituent institution will be approved by the Board of Governors and included in appropriate documents of the constituent institutions.

Note: "Because of the unique character and mission of the University of North Carolina School of the Arts¹, the requirement that the institution adopt tenure policies will be satisfied at that institution based on renewable contracts. . ." (The Code). Therefore, the recommendations contained herein are not applicable to the North Carolina School of the Arts.

¹Name changed from North Carolina School of the Arts to University of North Carolina School of the Arts effective August 1, 2008.