Welcome

The Office of Disability Support Services realizes that persons with documented medical conditions and disabilities may need services and/or accommodations to participate in the academic programs at NC A&T State University. If you need assistance or accommodations, we urge you to contact the office early in the beginning of each semester.

Mission Statement:

The mission statement of Disability Support Services is broken down into several components:

- To assist the student with a disability with his/her adjustment to University life.
- To provide and promote the use of support services which address specific needs of the student.
- To advocate for and educate others regarding the needs and concerns of the students with disabilities.
- To monitor the University's compliance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the American with Disabilities Act, 1990.

Take a few minutes to browse through our site. Here, you can learn more about eligibility requirements, and obtain additional information that may be useful. Should you have any concerns or can't find what you are looking for, just contact us. We are here to serve you and want to make your experience at the University a pleasant one. You may contact us by phone, fax, or email.
