A broad and comprehensive guide to best practices, activities and processes required to establish a professional master's program which draws on the experiences of participants in the Professional Master's Initiative. This book provides essential advice for graduate dean's offices and faculty on the development of collaborative degrees as well as inter-departmental, business, industry and government to devise programs that respond to regional employment needs.

Item code: PROMAS

Price:
- Starting from: 10 pieces $29.70
- Starting from: 25 pieces $26.24
- Starting from: 50 pieces $21.00
- Starting from: 100 pieces $17.50
- Starting from: 200 pieces $14.00

Quantity: 1

Add to Cart